An Engagement with

DAMON OWENS

Damon earned his B.S. at Brown University and his M.S. at UC-Berkeley. He is a widely published marriage expert who appears regularly on many radio and television programs (Catholic Answers, Ave Maria, Relevant Radio, Immaculate Heart Radio, ABC World News Tonight, CBS News, NPR) and has hosted and produced three 13-part television series for EWTN. He is also an accomplished gospel singer honored with a solo during the 1995 Papal Mass at Giants Stadium presided by Pope St. John Paul II. In 2018, Pope Francis honored Damon with the Papal Benemerenti Medal in recognition of his service to the Church in support of marriage and family. He and his wife, Melanie, have eight children and two grandchildren.

The Beautifully-Exhausting, Joyfully-Frustrating, God-Given Mess of The Family: Twelve Essential "Keys" to Living God's Plan for a Joy-Filled Family

Did you know the Church calls your family the "Domestic Church", a "school of love", and a "light in a dark world"? Yes, your family! Not because of what you look like, feel like, or have accomplished, but because of what you are. Family life often feels like a mess because true, authentic love is a messy project. Join other "messy" Parishioners for an evening of fellowship, faith, and encouragement. Damon Owens, international evangelist, husband, and father of eight will lead our discussion on 12 "keys" to living God's plan for a joy-filled family.

*When the World's Turned Upside Down

It's official: The world is crazy. Mad. Upside-down. Everything we know to be good, true, and beautiful seems to be questioned, under attack, changing, and marginalized: marriage, family, faith in God, even teachings of our Church! How are we supposed to live, think, feel, much more - proclaim - the joy of being a disciple of Christ in a world like this? This presentation will clearly frame the unique challenges of living our Christian faith in this culture and offer practical advice to not only survive, but flourish in this new age.
